

Heifer Selection and Carcase Ultrasound

An Afternoon in the Yards

EDUCATION DAY
19 March, 11am—4pm

Program

Morning tea available from 10:30am

11am—Which heifers should I retain?

Longevity traits and production traits with hands on selection (Lachlan James)

1pm—Complimentary BBQ lunch

2pm— Understanding Carcase Scanning
(Roger Evans—Bovine Scanning Services)

Live Ultrasound Scanning and evaluation of Carcase Competition Steers for Sydney

An Invitation... To all Beef Cattle Producers

- Do you want to...
- Improve your skills in selecting replacement heifers and assessing females for longevity and production?
- Understand the important carcase traits and where to look for them to meet MSA specifications more often?
- Test what your eyes are telling you about steers with demonstration of ultrasound scanning for eye muscle area , fat depth and marbling ?

Sunday 19 March 2017
Marriot Park Cattle Complex
Kamilaroi Hwy Curlewis
13km south of Gunnedah,
look for signs

Further information and RSVP:
Lachlan & Kate James
0402 839 373 (Lachlan)
0402 838 462 (Kate)
katejames2380@gmail.com

